

Title: Author Imprint: Meg Wolitzer

Type:	Segment
Subject(s):	TGAR Authors
Project Contact:	Name: Madeline Orton Company: WLIW Email: ortonm@wliw.org
Original Broadcast/Publish Date:	04/26/2018
Runtime:	00:09:26
Short Description:	In her new novel, best-selling author Meg Wolitzer explores the life of a young woman growing into her identity as a feminist. After suffering a sexual assault, the protagonist seeks the advice of a famous feminist - but life complicates their mentorship. These themes are particularly relevant today, but Meg has been thinking about them for years. This book is her "warm take" on gender equality.
Long Description:	In her new novel, best-selling author Meg Wolitzer explores the life of a young woman growing into her identity as a feminist. After suffering a sexual assault, the protagonist seeks the advice of a famous feminist - but life complicates their mentorship. These themes are particularly relevant today, but Meg has been thinking about them for years. This book is her "warm take" on gender equality.
Production Credits:	Diane Masciale-Executive Producer Annika Leybold-Producer Maddie Orton-Host Lisa Lucas-Guest Host
Rights Information
Media Rights:	All manner and media
Territory (*Please note: all internet exploitation of this program must be geo-limited to the specified territory):	Worldwide
Term:	In perpetuity
Releases:	1
Editing Allowed?:	No
Digital Classroom Rights?:	Yes
Promotional Use:	Yes
Lower Thirds:	N/A
Sensitive Material:	N/A
Special Instructions:	N/A
File Clean of Graphics:	No
Embed Code:	https://allarts.wliw.org/programs/author-imprint/m eg-wolitzer-discusses-the-female-persuasion-mypaww/