

Title: Billy Collins - Moby Dick

Type:	Segment
Subject(s):	The Great American Read
Project Contact:	Name: Linda Wei Company: Nashville Public Television Email: lwei@wnpt.org
Original Broadcast/Publish Date:	06/05/2018
Runtime:	00:01:00
Short Description:	J.T. Ellison talks with poet Billy Collins (The Rain in Portugal, Sailing Alone Around the Room) about his favorite book Moby Dick.
Long Description:	J.T. Ellison talks with poet Billy Collins (The Rain in Portugal, Sailing Alone Around the Room) about his favorite book Moby Dick.
Production Credits:	Host: J.T. Ellison, Poet: Billy Collins, Producer: Linda Wei, Editor: Courtney Breslin
Rights Information
Media Rights:	Specific manner/media
Specific Manner and Media (if specified):	Public Television, Free VOD & PBS Passport: any website, Free VOD & PBS Passport: public TV website only, Non-theatrical
Territory (*Please note: all internet exploitation of this program must be geo-limited to the specified territory):	Worldwide
Term:	In perpetuity
Releases:	Unlimited
Editing Allowed?:	No
Digital Classroom Rights?:	Yes
Promotional Use:	Yes
Lower Thirds:	N/A
Sensitive Material:	N/A
Special Instructions:	This video does have graphics but can easily be removed. Editing is up for negotiation as well. Please email me (lwei at wnpt dot org) if you want to use a version with no graphics or want to edit this piece in any way. This is a segment of an interview taped for an episode of NPT's series A WORD ON WORDS (AWOW). This portion was not used in an AWOW final episode, it was edited specifically for TGAR.
File Clean of Graphics:	No
Embed Code:	www.awordonwords.org