Short Description:	A beautiful art film from Michael Sykes and LA filmmaker Gaspar Gonzalez offers us a glimpse into a precious and fragile reminder of a Cuba before the revolution.
Long Description:	Jossie and Miguel Alonso's move into their stately Havana home coincided with the arrival of the Cuban revolution. Through five decades of social upheaval, the couple cared for each other and their house. Now a widow, Jossie still lives there, surrounded by her memories and the echoes of the past.
