

Title: NATIVE AMERICA: Gary Glassman 2

Type:	Interstitial/Promo
Subject(s):	Native America
Project Contact:	Name: Jon Rubin Company: Rhode Island PBS Email: Jrubin@ripbs.org
Original Broadcast/Publish Date:	10/05/2018
Runtime:	00:02:40
Short Description:	Gary Glassman, Executive Producer & Director, NATIVE AMERICA discusses the series.
Long Description:	In this interstitial, NATIVE AMERICA Executive Producer and Director, Gary Glassman, describes one of his favorite locations in the series. It's a cave in the Amazon which has possibly the oldest paintings in the Americas, dating back to 13,000 years ago. Its discovery has helped to re-write history.
Production Credits:	Produced by Maria Saracen Scott Saracen  Footage courtesy of Providence Pictures  Funding provided by Anne Ray Foundation, A Margaret A. Cargill Philanthropy.
Rights Information
Media Rights:	All manner and media
Territory (*Please note: all internet exploitation of this program must be geo-limited to the specified territory):	Worldwide
Term:	In perpetuity
Releases:	Unlimited
Editing Allowed?:	No
Digital Classroom Rights?:	Yes
Promotional Use:	Yes
Lower Thirds:	Gary Glassman, Executive Producer & Director, NATIVE AMERICA
Sensitive Material:	N/A
Special Instructions:	N/A
File Clean of Graphics:	No
Embed Code:	No