Short Description:	A husband and wife, one who fought in the Vietnam conflict and one who protested against the war, reflect on that conflict.
Long Description:	The conflict in Vietnam was perhaps the most defining and divisive periods of American history since the Civil War. It touched the lives of every adult alive during that time period, whether they were in favor of the war, opposed to it, fighting in it, or some combination of all three. "Rebuilding" shares how the Vietnam war affected the lives of two North Country locals, one who fought in the war, and one who protested the war. Richard and Phyllis share stories of how the war changed them at the time, and how it still influences their lives today.
