Short Description:	Thousands of people have contributed stories to PBS American Portrait, and this half-hour special curates hundreds of them into one extraordinary short documentary.
Long Description:	This year, PBS asked people across the country to share short stories about their lives in order to inspire a nationwide conversation about what it really means to be American today. Thousands of people have contributed stories to the project, and this half-hour special curates hundreds of them into one extraordinary short documentary. Produced in an innovative flexible format, many PBS member stations are customizing sections of it to amplify stories from their regions and show what they have in common with others across America. Under Additional Assets- Video, you will find promos for this program. Under Additional Assets- Closed Captioning, you will find the .scc file. Under Additional Assets- Documents, you will find the Customization Guide, Key Art Guide, List of Assets, Customizable Press Release, Program Offer, and Program Script Under Additional Assets- Images, you will find Additional Stills, Logos, and Social Images. Under Additional Assets- Other, you will find Cobrandable Station Digital Banner Ads, Cobrandable Station eCard assets, Key Art files, promo customization assets and 18 TT Commons font styles.
